LOCAL PRIVATE AFFORDABLE HOUSING RENTAL PROGRAM
ELIGIBILITY & APPLICATION PROCESS

WHAT: The Local Affordable Housing Rental Program has been designed to create and maintain the availability of affordable rental units to persons of low-to-moderate income (LMI). Rental rates are regulated by the Brockton PMSA as published periodically by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Current rental rates are noted below and are limited in size to one and two bedroom units.

WHY: This Program is to assist persons of low-to-moderate income in identifying and applying for available rental units under the local Housing Development Support Program grants.

WHO: The Program is for low-to-moderate income persons. Defined Income Limits are published periodically by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for the Brockton, MA area, for use by the Housing Development Support Program. Current income limits are noted below.

WHERE: Downtown Middleborough Business District.

WHEN: Availability of units fluctuates. If there are no units available, eligible applicants are added to a waiting list.

1. Affordable Housing Application Forms are available outside the OECD office (Monday-Friday, 8:30-4:30), or can be mailed upon request by calling OECD at 508-946-2402- ext.3. Also, requests may be emailed to: OECDWeb@middleborough.com. Fully completed forms are to be returned to OECD.
2. The above forms will be reviewed for determination of eligibility of applicant. An on-going list of eligible applicants will be maintained and numbered sequentially as applications are received. Applicants should not contact the landlord, but will be notified by OECD in writing of their eligibility or ineligibility. Applicants will be matched to availability of apartments in order of their appearance on the waiting list.
3. The applicant will be notified by the property owner to make an appointment for viewing available apartments.

CURRENT INCOME LIMITS (FY 2020):

1 person household	$33,350 - $53,390
2 person household	$38,100 - $60,950
3 person household	$42,850 - $68,550
4 person household	$47,600 - $76,150

CURRENT RENTAL RATES (FY 2019):

1 bedroom	Maximum $1,111.00 incl/utilities
2 bedroom	Maximum $1,336.00 incl/utilities
